

Training courses from Relate Spring 2012

Counselling Skills For Non-Counsellors

This is a four day course for those engaged in a helping or supporting role privately or professionally. The aim of the course is to provide students with an understanding of the basics of counselling, including the three stage model based upon Carkhuff and Egan. Also included are interview management ethical issues and the opportunity to practise the basic skills of counselling.

The cost for this course is £210* - plus accreditation charge of £50

20th, 27th Feb, 5th and 12th March 2012 (4 sessions) Harrow

23rd, 1st, 8th and 15th March 2012 (4 sessions) East Barnet

Further Counselling Skills

This four day course is ideal for those who offer a higher level of emotional support as part of their role. It is designed for those who have undertaken an introductory counseling skills course and would like to further develop their skills.

The cost for this course is £260*

26th April, 3rd, 10th, 17th May 2012 (4 sessions) Harrow

Both Counselling Skills for Non Counsellors and Further Counselling Skills are accredited by the Open College Network and offer up to three credits at level 3

All courses (unless otherwise stated run at Relate London North West, Civic Centre, Station Road, Harrow HA1 2XH

To book a place please contact Relate on: 020 8427 2801 / 8694 or email : relate_training@yahoo.co.uk

*Concessions are available for over 60's and the unwaged. Concession price is 50% of full cost.